

WATAR 2021

The Watershed Approach to Toxics Assessment and Restoration (WATAR) is a watershed-scale approach to evaluating where contamination comes from, how it gets into Delaware's waterways and water bodies, and what effects it has on watershed health. Learn what the program has done.